Sheriff Patrick McDermott, the Norfolk County Sheriff's Office & Representative Jeffrey Roy to host Fall Safety Fest at Fletcher Field in Franklin on September 20th

FRANKLIN, MA – Sheriff Patrick McDermott, the Norfolk County Sheriff's Office, and Representative Jeffrey Roy are teaming up to host a free Fall Safety Fest at Fletcher Field in Franklin on Saturday, September 20th, from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The safety fest will bring together local public safety agencies, community organizations, and Franklin area residents for an event filled with interactive displays, K9 and safety demonstrations, and a touch-a-truck experience, featuring vehicles from the Franklin Police, Fire, and Department of Public Works and the NCSO Command Center.

"We are getting a jump on fall with a great opportunity for people to meet the public safety professionals, local leaders, and organizations who serve their communities, said Norfolk County Sheriff Patrick McDermott. "We are excited to partner with Rep. Jeff Roy for this fun, family day."

Children can explore a bouncy house and obstacle course, and all guests can enjoy complimentary hamburgers and hot dogs, courtesy of the sheriff's "Tactical Picnic Unit."

"The safety fest is a nice way for people to learn about the many local resources available to them across Norfolk County," said Rep. Jeffrey Roy, 10th Norfolk. "We look forward to welcoming people of all ages to Fletcher Field as fall is about to settle into Massachusetts."

Residents are also encouraged to bring non-perishable food items to the safety fest in support of the Franklin Food Pantry.

Parking for Fletcher Field is located at both 45 Street and 84 Wachusett Street in Franklin.
