Sheriff Patrick McDermott and the Norfolk County Sheriff's Office to host "House to House for Heroes" veterans' outreach in Canton

CANTON, MA – Sheriff Patrick McDermott and the Norfolk County Sheriff's Office will host a volunteer-driven "House to House for Heroes" veterans outreach event in Canton on Saturday, November 15th, going door-to-door to deliver important information about the resources and benefits available to veterans.

House to House for Heroes is presented in partnership with the Canton Veterans' Services Office and is part of an ongoing initiative to connect local veterans with the benefits and support they have earned.

Volunteers will deliver packets of information about resources available to veterans and their families. The day will begin with a 9:15 a.m. kickoff ceremony at the American Legion Post, 950 Washington Street, Canton, followed by the neighborhood visits.

"This is a simple, but powerful way to give back to the men and women who have served with honor in our nation's military," said Sheriff McDermott. "I guarantee volunteers will leave this effort with a true sense of pride, after they get a chance to connect with veterans who have selflessly given so much to this country."

People interested in volunteering can arrive at 9:00 a.m. at the American Legion Post or register in advance at <https://bit.ly/CantonHTH>

Canton will be the sixth Norfolk County community visited in 2025 through this outreach effort by the sheriff's office. Previous House to House for Heroes events were held this year in Foxborough, Stoughton, Walpole, Norfolk, Weymouth and in Braintree and Quincy last year.

Each veteran will receive a resource packet that includes information about applying for Veterans Affairs benefits, housing and employment opportunities, newly expanded state programs, and other local support services. The packet also includes a personal letter of thanks from the sheriff and contact details for veteran-focused organizations.
