Statement from the Norfolk County Sheriff's Office

DEDHAM, MA - On Thursday, September 11th, at approximately 9:55 p.m., an individual in custody at the Norfolk County Sheriff's Correctional Center in Dedham was treated for non-life-threatening injuries after being assaulted inside one of the facility's housing units.

Officers acted immediately to intervene and to render first aid. None of the officers was injured.

The individual who was assaulted was conscious and alert and taken to Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center in Boston for treatment. He was returned to our facility overnight.

The other individual involved was subdued by officers, and a makeshift blunt instrument was recovered.

The NCSO is actively investigating the circumstances of the incident along with members of the State Police Detective Unit assigned to the Norfolk County District Attorney's Office.
